GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

With little more than a year until the United States' national elections, I find myself feeling, like many Catholics, both dread and energized. Dread, because our democratic republic can be a messy endeavor and campaigns a long, nasty, and unedifying slog; energized, because hope for positive societal change can be enticing and engaging. As a pastor, I see similar conflicting attitudes in those whom I serve. How can Catholics best engage our political arena in a way which is truly helpful and worthwhile?

This week's gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime.

What's a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God's all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus' words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn't God — but he is indeed God's.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

22 de octubre de 2023 ~ 29º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¿Cómo le pagaremos al Señor todo lo que ha hecho por nosotros? Trabajo, hogar, comida, familia, educación, salud y muchas cosas más, que si las nombráramos no terminaríamos. Cada uno debe agradecer a Dios las maravillas de su amor, y de su cuidado especial. En la Liturgia de hoy, ante la trampa que le ponen a Jesús en este Evangelio, nos da una gran lección. El impuesto debido al César: "Devuelvan, pues, al César las cosas del César, y a Dios lo que corresponde a Dios" (Mateo 22,21). Darle lugar a cada quien sin engañarnos con imágenes falsas. Por lo tanto, si Dios nos ha dado todo, lo menos que podemos ser es ser agradecidos.

"Y con esta respuesta, Jesús se sitúa por encima de la polémica. Jesús siempre más allá. Por una parte, reconoce que se debe pagar el tributo al César --- también nosotros: hay que pagar los impuestos---, porque la imagen sobre la moneda es la suya; pero, sobre todo, recuerda que cada persona lleva en sí otra imagen --- la llevamos en el corazón, en el alma---, la de Dios, y por tanto es a Él, y solo a Él, a quien cada uno debe la propia existencia, la propia vida" (Papa Francisco 10/18/2020). Ante este mensaje, solo queda pedirle a Jesús, que nos ilumine con su verdad para distinguir lo que es civil y lo que es religioso, a no mezclar los campos, a no caer en trampas que nos alejen de la verdad que libera y hace justicia. ©LPi

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Blessing of Missionaries

So often we think of missionaries as those people from Protestant churches that go to other countries to spread the good news. However, do you realize that the United States is actually considered a “mission country” because we need more priests and sisters in the United States than we produce? Yes, we are now a mission country.

Let us ask God’s blessing on those men and women from other countries who are in our midst as priests, brothers, and sisters. And when we pray, let us also ask God to change our hearts so that we will again produce a society that brings forth more vocations.

Let us pray...

*God of every nation,
you commissioned us at Pentecost
to go and make disciples of all nations.
When we take up your commission,
we become missionaries of your Gospel.
Bless all missionaries in our communities
with your love that surpasses all understanding.
Change our hearts so that we become the missionaries you expect us to be.
We ask this through Jesus,
the first missionary of your Gospel.
Amen.*

Bendición de los Misioneros

Muy a menudo pensamos en los misioneros como aquellas personas de iglesias protestantes que van a otros condados para difundir las buenas nuevas. Sin embargo, ¿se ha dado cuenta de que Estados Unidos en realidad es considerado un “país de misión” porque necesitamos más sacerdotes y hermanas en los Estados Unidos de los que producimos? Sí, ahora somos un país de misión.

Pidamos la bendición de Dios sobre aquellos hombres y mujeres de otros países que están entre nosotros como sacerdotes, hermanos y hermanas. Y cuando oremos, pidamos también a Dios que cambie nuestros corazones para que podamos producir nuevamente una sociedad que produzca más vocaciones.

Oremos...

*Dios de cada nación,
nos encomendaste en Pentecostés
para ir y hacer discípulos a todas las naciones.
Cuando asumimos tu encomienda,
nos convertimos en misioneros de tu Evangelio.
Bendice a todos los misioneros en nuestras comunidades
con tu amor que sobrepase todo entendimiento.
Cambia nuestros corazones para que seamos
los misioneros que esperas que seamos.
Te lo pedimos por Jesús,
el primer misionero de tu Evangelio.
Amén.*

HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS FROM THE SAFETY AND SECURITY MINISTRY

With the holidays approaching, we encourage you to stay safe this Halloween.

Please see the safety tips below:

DRIVERS-When driving, watch for children walking on streets, medians and curbs. Excited kids, often in dark costumes, may cross the street in between parked cars or outside of marked cross-walks.

TRICK OR TREATERS- please look both ways before you cross the street and utilize established cross-walks whenever possible.

Take the time to examine all treats for choking hazards and tampering before you or your child eats them.

Have children try on costumes and shoes in advance to check fit. Ensure accessories do not obstruct the child's view or create a tripping hazard.

AT HOME- Be careful with lit candles or luminaries as they may pose a fire hazard.

FOR YOUR PETS – Keep your pets away from lit candles. A curious pet can easily suffer injury if he or she gets too close.

Keep your pets safely inside. Pets become easily confused by the masks, noises and excitement of Halloween. If you decide to take them outside, ensure they are on a leash.

If you feel the call to serve, please reach out to any ministry member for details on how to join. Ministry members wear blue/green/red lanyards and work to be of service to our parishioners.
